CLEVELAND

Professional baseball in Cleveland is one of the city's oldest traditions, reaching its 131st anniversary in 2000.

When fans think of professional baseball in Cleveland, most think of the Cleveland Indians as being one of four charter members of the American League (along with Boston, Chicago, and Detroit,) which began in 1901, reaching its 100th Anniversary in 2001.

However, it was the Cleveland Forest City's who began this tradition on June 2, 1869 vs. the Cincinnati Red Stockings. The city of Cleveland has played host to every professional Major League ballclub in the history of the game.

Cleveland fielded a National Association team in 1871 and 1872; a National League team from 1879 to 1884, and an American Association club in 1888 and 1889. In addition, Cleveland played host to teams in the Player's League, Federal League, and Negro League.

In 1895, the Cleveland Spiders of the National League were winners of the Temple Cup Championship series against Baltimore (the Spiders lost the championship series to Baltimore the following season). The Cleveland Buckeyes of the Negro League were crowned champions in 1945. The 1920 & 1948 Indians own World Series titles.

Many great ballplayers have graced the diamonds in Cleveland from the likes of Major Leaguers Joe Jackson, Cy Young and Napoleon Lajoie in the early 1900s to Bob Feller, Larry Doby, Satchel Paige, Al Rosen, and Bob Lemon in the 40s and 50s to the modern era players of Roberto Alomar, Jim Thome, and Omar Vizquel. Also in the late 1800s, Louis Francis Sockalexis was the first Native American professional baseball player and Larry Doby broke the color barrier in the American League.

In 1986, after a myriad of ownership changes with the Club that led to several decades of futility for the Indians, Richard E. and David H. Jacobs purchased the Club. Stable, committed ownership improved the farm system, and a new state-of-the-art Ballpark opened in 1994 to change the fortunes of the Cleveland Indians.

In February 2000, the Dolan Family, led by Larry and his son, Paul, purchased the ballclub. Mr. Larry Dolan indicated he made this major investment for varied reasons – one, the strength of the system that has been established and two, the people who created and continue to execute the plan.

ALCOHOL MANAGEMENT: T.E.A.M. — Techniques for Effective Alcohol Management

Techniques for Effective Alcohol Management (TEAM) is a national project that started in 1985. TEAM is designed to assist public facilities in:

- * Promoting responsible alcohol service.
- * Enhancing the safety and enjoyment of our guests.
- Reducing potential liabilities to facilities and servers.
- * Reducing the incidence of drunk driving.

Everyone plays a role in TEAM. We must work together to ensure the responsible sale and consumption of alcohol during a ballgame. All staff will learn about the signs of alcohol impairment and the proper steps to take when handling an alcohol-related incident.

GUEST BEHAVIOR

All staff, regardless of their assignment, have the opportunity and responsibility to monitor guest behavior. Any indication of rowdiness must be immediately reported to the nearest supervisor, security person, or police officer. Unruly, disruptive behavior will not be tolerated. Profanity will not be tolerated. Any guest using profanity will be asked to leave the Ballpark.

- Try to resolve the situation by using effective public relations techniques. Keep your voice steady and firm, sincere and clear, not too loud or quiet. Speak at a steady, even pace and emphasize key words. Make sure your eye contact is firm, but not challenging. Stand up straight and tall—don't slouch or cower.
- Continuously monitor your area for rowdy behavior. Notify your supervisor or ask a fellow employee to do so if you cannot handle the problem yourself or if you cannot leave the situation.
- Monitor your area for alcohol abuse or underage drinking. Jacobs Field policy states that beer and other alcoholic beverages be served to guests who:
 - Show valid state or military identification which clearly indicates that the person is at least 21 years of age.
 - Are not intoxicated. If you notice someone you believe to be intoxicated, contact your supervisor.
 - Are not purchasing alcohol to give to a minor.
- When you notice someone you believe is under 21 years of age purchasing or consuming beer or other alcoholic beverages, contact your supervisor. If the person is underage or will not show an ID, contact a supervisor if you have not already done so.
- * Monitor exits for guests leaving the Ballpark with Emergency alarms are both audible and visual — located in the concourses, elevator lobbies, elevator cars, and rest rooms.

A wheelchair can be borrowed for this purpose by leaving an established form of identification at the gate. Strollers are permitted to enter the Ballpark provided the occupant meets the preceding criteria. Fold-up type strollers are to be stored beneath the seat during the game, or if it is a non-folding type, checked at a Guest Service Center or at the gate. For the safety of everyone, it is important that strollers not be in an aisle or blocking access to an aisle. Strollers can be stored at a Guest Service Center.

This is usually from 5:30-6:00pm for night games and from 11:30am-noon for day games. Children may enjoy a treat at the concession stand from the "kids only" menu in KidsLand, featuring peanut butter and jelly sandwiches, juice boxes and more! To enter, children must be accompanied by an adult.

LASER POINTERS

Laser pointers and similar items are prohibited at Jacobs Field. In addition to the safety issues that these devices pose, they also interfere with both the play of the game and other fans' enjoyment. Anyone who is observed using a laser pointer will need to either leave the Ballpark or allow the device to be confiscated and destroyed. Any laser pointer which is confiscated will not be returned.

LOST AND FOUND

Guests needing to claim or report lost items during a game should visit any Guest Service Center (sections 120 and 519). Any item found by a game day staff member should also be taken to the nearest Guest Services location. Please provide the Guest Service Representative with the location and time the item was found. All items are tagged and logged as they are received. When possible, the Indians will contact the rightful owners. Guests with an inquiry regarding items lost at previous games should call the LOST AND FOUND HOTLINE at 216,420,4932. This number will apply for items lost throughout the Ballpark including our Premium Seating areas. A pickup time can be scheduled through the LOST AND FOUND HOTLINE. Items cannot be picked up without an appointment. Items are stored for 30 days and then donated to an appropriate charity.

NOISE MAKERS

Plastic bazooka horns, air horns, bugles, cowbells, or any other type of noisemakers which are deemed offensive to guests are prohibited from the Ballpark.

OFFICIAL GAME, RAINOUT, CURFEW

A game is considered official after 4 1/2 innings have been completed, five innings if the Indians are losing at the time of the delay. If a game is postponed prior to being an official game, please instruct guests to hold on to their ticket stubs. Details regarding rescheduling or refund of the purchase price will be announced at a later date. If the guest is a Season Ticket Holder, please instruct them to refer to their Season Ticket Holder Handbook for further information. No inning may begin after 1am. The curfew rule is waived on the visiting team's last regularly scheduled visit. Watch the scoreboard and listen to the P.A. announcements.

PAGING

Requests for paging are only honored when a situation has been confirmed to be of an extreme medical emergency. Incoming calls with requests for paging guests attending the baseball game will be questioned by a Fan Operator or Guest Services Representative to determine if it is an emergency.

If the situation can be verified via a return call to a physician, medical facility, police or fire department, we will deliver a message to the guest at their seat location if known. If necessary, the Guest Services Supervisor will request a Public Address System announcement from our Scoreboard Control Room requesting the fan report to Guest Services.

Pets are not allowed at Jacobs Field for any event. However, persons with disabilities are permitted to bring their service dogs into the Ballpark.

PREMIUM SEATING ACCESS

Only guests ticketed for Club Seats and Suites are permitted access to the elevators and Premium Seating Levels. These areas and access routes are also limited only to the assigned personnel.

Procedures to ensure proper ticketing are to be strictly adhered to.

REENTRY POLICY

Guests may not exit and reenter Jacobs Field using the same ticket. However, if there is an EMERGENCY a hand stamp may be issued at the Main Concourse Guest Service Center provided the proper criteria have been met. This will allow the guest a limited amount of time to exit the facility via a gate designated by Guest Services. Guests who leave the Ballpark at any time, including rain delays, without the hand stamp will not be permitted to reenter with the same ticket.

SCALPING OF GAME TICKETS

The resale of game tickets at any price is prohibited in and around the Ballpark. Violators are subject to arrest and prosecution by the Cleveland Police Department. Should you witness anyone reselling tickets at any price, inform your supervisor or Ballpark security immediately. The resale of tickets by employees is grounds for immediate dismissal.
